PRESS RELEASE

MARCH 2009

A winter retreat fit for royalty

As travel within the borders of South Africa becomes the only affordable option, it's great to know that one doesn't need to compromise on the splendor of the experience. With Chez Nous, Amazing Spaces new luxury villa, you enter another world, where tranquil surroundings, exquisite furnishings and extraordinary service benchmark new standards of international 5 star luxury.

Chez Nous is situated in the exclusive suburb of Bishops Court and set in a picturesque country garden with the majestic Table Mountain as its backdrop. The estate is available as a 3 or 5 bedroom en suite villa that is fully serviced and fully fitted with all the luxury's required. Enter into a space of grand splendor where jeweled chandeliers, deep piled carpeting and plush vintage glamour are a pre-requisite for each room.

With a heated pool, large wood-burning fireplaces, spacious lounges, a bar facility, internet and full 24 hour security, Chez Nous offer a real winter escape. You are invited to switch off and experience the life designed exclusively for the rich and famous where you can access anything through touch of a button, but privacy and serenity are top priority.
